E-Learning OvGU

Home

Welcome to the central e-learning platform (Moodle) of the University of Magdeburg!

This platform offers teachers the opportunity to set up digital teaching and learning rooms, to provide materials, to work cooperatively with your students, or to communicate specific topics.

As a student, you can use the Moodle courses offered here independently of time and place and according to your own learning needs.

For information about digital teaching support and tips on other e-learning tools, please visit the following website
